

Brainpop Quiz: Fertilization to Birth

1.

Q: Where are female egg cells stored?

- a in the ovaries
- b in the urethra
- c in the fallopian tubes

4.

Q: What happens once an egg cell is fertilized?

- a it starts to divide
- b it shrinks
- c it changes colors

2.

Q: When does fertilization happen?

- a when an egg cell is released from the ovaries
- b when a sperm cell combines its genetic material with that of an egg cell
- c when a sperm cell enters the oviduct

5.

Q: How does the developing embryo receive nutrients?

- a by photosynthesis
- b through the umbilical cord
- c through its mouth

3.

Q: How long does a fetus need to fully develop?

- a 3-6 weeks
- b 16 months
- c 9 months

6.

Q: What cushions the fetus?

- a the amniotic sac and fluid
- b the stomach lining
- c blood vessels

7.

Q: When is the developing baby called a fetus?

- a after the first 2 months of pregnancy
- b after the first 6 months of pregnancy
- c after it is born

8.

Q: What is the correct order of development?

- a fetus, zygote, embryo egg
- b egg, fetus, zygote, embryo
- c egg, zygote, embryo, fetus

9.

Q: How many sperm can fertilize one egg?

- a one
- b two
- c ten

10.

Q: What is a normal weight for a baby?

- a 8 pounds
- b 2 pounds
- c 15 pounds

